This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low-cost, short-weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall Street New York. 221

The Walker, Iowa, News, says: "Our old friend, Robert Baird, of Muscatine, Iowa, has been Secretary of the State Senate, and an active politician for years, but was never generally known until he had the colic, and used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and got into one of their advertisements. 'Now he is famous.' Here is what Mr. Baird said: 'While in Des Moines, I was taken with a severe attack of bowel complaint. For two days I suffered intensely, trying several drug stores and paying them for relief, but in vain. I finally bought a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and two doses of that brought me out all right. It costs less than the drug store preparations and I have the balance for future use. I consider it a grand remedy.' 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by G. C. Thaxter.

How Can Parents

allow their children to cough and strain and cough and calmly say: "Oh! it's only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.

"All things come to him who waits," and the APPEAL force has been waiting with patience for a water melon. The man to make good the quotation was Walter Chedic, who, yesterday, sent a dray to the office with one of those big melons he has for sale. All the printers, devil and pencil pushers had to loosen their waistband six inches after having met that melon. Walter, may you never be thirsty or hungry.

There is nothing uncertain about the effects of "Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The fact is, it is the only preparation in the market that can always be relied upon, and that is pleasant and safe to take. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by G. C. Thaxter.

Cough! and Cough!! and Cough!!!

What in the world is the reason you will cough and keep coughing and still keep trying inferior medicines when BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP will positively relieve your cough at once? This is no advertising scheme, but an actual fact, and we guarantee it. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.

TAHOE NOTES.

For the past two or three weeks forest fires have been raging back of Tahoe City, within a quarter of a mile of the hotel, and also near Idlewild, and Sunny-side. At the latter place, they have been fighting the fire for nearly two weeks to keep it from the buildings. All the fires have about subsided now.

Fishing is splendid all over the lake. At McKinney's everybody is catching enough to eat and more too.

McKinney's is the most homelike place on the lake; the hotel is nearly full, and there is a dance there every Wednesday night. All enjoy themselves at the resort and are always loath to leave.

The Bellevue is the most handsomely equipped hotel on the lake and Oliver Roberts and his wife know how to make things pleasant for their guests. Fatty Cohn lends considerable assistance behind the bar.

There are about seventy-five campers at Yank's; among them are an Earl and his wife.

Roberts, of the Bellevue, has discovered a small lake back of the place, a mile or so, and he intends planting 10,000 trout in it. He will also plant 40,000 trout in a creek near the hotel. Next Summer he will add several cottages, plant a lawn of blue grass and otherwise improve the place.

Among the guests at the Bellevue is Mr. Cotton of the Examiner staff. Mr. Cotton, Mr. Roberts and "Bites" Cohn went in swimming off the wharf the other day and the lake raised 2 1/2 inches.

The facts in the case regarding the condemning of the Niagara and the Mamie: Two men were running the Mamie who had no licenses as engineer and pilot and the Government Inspectors refused them licenses. However she is being run by a license crew now.

The Niagara was simply refused a passenger license on account of old boilers.

The mill at Glenbrook is running to its fullest capacity and steamers are plying back and forth with barges and log booms daily.

Mrs. Maish and children are camped at McKinney's.

Mr. Pinniger, the Reno druggist, and wife, are stopping at McKinney's.

BEATS THE RECORD.—A cow belonging to Bill Wonder, who has his herd pasturing on the hills near Bowman's dam, Nevada county, recently gave birth to five calves. One of the young ones looks more like a young jack than like an animal of the cow species. A San Francisco tourist, when he saw the strange animal, offered to give $2,500 for the freak. Stockmen say four calves are common, but when a jack is thrown in, it beats the record.

A HOR BLAST.—Yesterday afternoon about two o'clock, a blast of hot air blew for a few minutes from the North that had in it the fierceness of a breeze from the lower regions. A few cumulous clouds were to be seen in the sky, but they failed to precipitate any moisture, and the firey breeze made the just and unjust swelter alike.

There is said to be a little dancing girl in "Old Jed Prouty" whose pair of remarkable little limbs has pattered her into public affection. She executes a dance that has been pronounced an exquisite poem.

The APPEAL is informed that the fire reported in the timber near Emerald Bay did not reach the houses at that place. All the cottages are in excellent condition and free from any danger. It is to be hoped the reported fire will not keep visitors from visiting this favorable resort.

"There is corn in Egypt." Genesis, chapter XLII., v. 2.

This is a phrase in very frequent use, employed to signify a superfluity of any thing. We use it here in reference to the large stock of shoes, groceries, dry goods etc., carried by Olcovich Bros. Bargains in shoes, await the early customer. The stock is complete in every style of desirable foot gear. Come early and often. 20 tf.

"Old Jed Prouty."

"Old Jed Prouty" was played last night by Mr. Golden at the Metropolitan Theater. There has been presented here no better staged play. It was mounted with an attention to detail that was very nearly the perfection of stage-setting and management. The play is a clean, interesting and exceedingly humorous sketch of Yankee life of the rural order in the far parts of Maine. The company is a thoroughly good one, and there is in it no weak member. Mr. Golden's "Jed Prouty" is one of the neatest and altogether best bits of eccentric character acting ever seen here. In style it strongly resembles the method and tone given by Denman Thompson to "Joshua Whitcomb". But in many respects it is a better character and better played. There is a total absence of the vulgarisms Mr. Thompson introduces. "Josh" was vulgar and rude at times, "Jed" never is. While he is rural, simple and eccentric, he is all the time actuated by the instincts of the true gentleman. He makes the most ludicrous mistakes, but never descends to rudeness or to the level of the boor. Mr. Golden's art, while confined to depicting a simple country character, is nevertheless finished, delicate and distinguished by the fine touches of a master. No comedy has appeared here that has been more heartily approved by an audience. Miss Irwin is entitled to rank next to Mr. Golden in the skill with which she interprets a difficult roll, scarcely second to her are Harry Rice, F. R. Jackson, and H. M. Morse in eccentric characters each as neatly drawn as that portrayed by Mr. Golden. Two very precocious children add very much to the interest, humor and full success of the piece. The play will be repeated to night and ought to draw a full house of lovers of clean, interesting and thoroughly capable acting. The old Maine "tavern" and the Boston "flat," the life-like scene in the country Justice's Court are alone sufficient attraction if the excellence of the quartet and the drollery and pathos of Mr. Golden were not in themselves thoroughly entertained. Sacramento Bee.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Saturday afternoon while driving to Glenbrook, County Recorder McCabe, and family had a narrow escape from being killed. When near Saints' Rest, he met a man with a horse and cart coming down the grade in a very narrow place and in attempting to help the man pass the horse, being a young one, became frightened, and to use the words of our informant, jumped over the team occupied by Mr. McCabe's family, fortunately doing them no harm.

SHOT ON THE STREET.—Yesterday morning, about 1 o'clock, as A. K. Lamb, night-watchman at the Mint was on his way home, he noticed a badger in Mr. Coffin's yard opposite the Bank. Calling officer Bryant's attention to the fact they concluded he had no business on the premises, when Lamb put an end to his prowling by shooting him.

Murdered and Robbed.

CINCINNATI, July 27.—Dr. A. E. Jones, an old resident of this city, well known as a local historian and an enthusiast in military matters, was yesterday mysteriously missing from his home on Walnut hill. This morning his body was found in a man hole not far from his residence. He had been murdered and robbed.

What on Earth

Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nos trums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.
